Reaching Out

Marathon to Benefit Area Children

By Kenneth J. Souza

On Sunday, May 23 beginning at 10:00 am, the Mattapoisett Police Brotherhood in partnership with Hearts and Hands will host the fourth annual Bike-A-Thon and Walk-A-Thon benefit. Walkers and bikers alike will put their best foot forward to help raise money which will provide continued support services to medically-fragile children and their families throughout the SouthCoast area.

As someone who's been involved from the inception of this major fund-raiser for Hearts and Hands, Mattapoisett Detective Sergeant Mary Lyons stressed the importance of community support. "All proceeds go directly to Hearts and Hands," she said. "We've gotten a huge response this year from civic groups, area schools and businesses, and residents. It's open to everyone ... come as you are!"

Registration for the various events begins at 9:00 am at the Salvation Army Thrift Store parking lot on Route 6 (51 County Road) in Mattapoisett. From there participants will embark on their choice of a short, approximately two-mile stroll through the center of Mattapoisett; a more rigorous 10-mile race around Mattapoisett; or the more challenging 25-mile bike route through Mattapoisett, Marion, Rochester and Acushnet.

At the conclusion of the marathon, there will be a community cookout at Ned's Point starting around 12:00 noon with food and music provided by Chris Richards. Special prizes will be awarded for participants in the categories of oldest, youngest, largest, and those who wear the "best costume."

"We've got a lot of community involvement this year," said Pat Gardiner of Hearts and Hands. "We have students from the youth ministry at Bishop Stang High School, groups from ORR Junior and Senior High Schools, the Mattapoisett Brownie Troop and Boy Scouts, and members of the American Business Women group."

As in the past, Brownell's Boatyard has graciously donated a float for the kids in the Hearts and Hands program to ride on during the event.

Those interested in joining the walkers, runners and bikers on May 23 should contact the Hearts and Hands office at 763-9703 or the Mattapoisett Police Department at 758-4141 to obtain sponsor sheets. Donations of any amount are most appreciated, and last-minute registrations will be accepted on the day of the marathon between 9:00 and 10:00 am.

Vietnam Veterans Stone in Rochester

A new Vietnam Veterans memorial stone was recently placed at Daggett Square on Route 105 in Rochester. The fitting memorial was placed there unnoticed because no parade or fancy unveiling went with it — only Mr. Rex of Rex Monuments (the company which made the memorial) and Will Boutin, the Veterans Grave Taker for Rochester, were present.

Situated on the same green which bears memorials to veterans of other wars, the stone bears a bronze plaque with the simple moniker: "Vietnam - Those who fought for each other, 1959 - 1975."

Money to purchase the stone was allocated upon a request from Mr. Boutin by the Town of Rochester after he noted there wasn't any existing monument or memorial to veterans of the Vietnam War in town. After a lot of thought, phone calls, and foot work, the project came to fruition with a permanent and sombre memorial to all veterans, MIA's and POW's of the Vietnam War.

On the cover: *Gearing up for the fourth annual Hearts and Hands benefit marathon in Mattapoisett next week are (l. to r.) Joshua Desmarais and son Norman, Mattapoisett Police Detective Sergeant Mary Lyons, Melissa Desmarais, Billy Desmarais, Jeanne Siroky, and Helen Siroky. Both the Desmarais and Siroky families will benefit from the generous donations and funds raised during the bike-a-thon/walk-a-thon slated for Sunday, May 23 with registration at 9:00 am and step off at 10:00 am from the Salvation Army parking lot on Route 6. Mattapoisett Annual Town Meeting

May 10-11, 1999

By Kenneth J. Souza

An estimated 170 voters turned out for the first evening of the Annual Town Meeting in Mattapoisett on Monday, May 10 at 7:00 pm in the auditorium of Old Rochester Regional High School to consider 47 articles on the warrant and a general operating budget totalling $11.45 million for Fiscal Year 2000. Noting the presence of a quorum, Town Moderator William Blasdale called the meeting to order at 7:10 pm with a Salute to the Flag and a moment of silence for "departed Town Meeting members."

After reviewing some of the ground rules and procedures for Town Meeting and introducing the town officials seated on the stage including the members of the Board of Selectmen, Finance Committee (FinCom), Town Clerk, Executive Secretary, Town Accountant, and Town Counsel Daniel Perry, Mr. Blasdale turned the floor over to FinCom Chairman Richard Gamache for an overview of the town's fiscal outlook for FY 2000.

Mr. Gamache cautioned that the budget was very tight this year, and he hoped that voters would stick to the FinCom's recommendations and avoid tinkering with individual line items. "We're tight this year, but next year is going to be worse," he said. "We're going to have to do some things differently next year."

Among the major increases in the new budget: all department heads were given a flat 5 percent wage increase, while elected officials received a 3 percent hike — with overall salaries jumping an average of 3.98 percent. The largest budgetary increases fell under education, with an estimated 10.5 increase in local schools and 10.7 percent increase overall. The biggest single hit came from Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School budget, in which Mattapoisett's share under the Education Reform Act went up 62 percent to $85,000 while the actual number of students only jumped from 23 to 31.

"There's really nothing we can do about that," Mr. Gamache said. "That's calculated by a formula the state uses ... our town was hit harder this year due to the perceived wealth of Mattapoisett. Old Colony's overall budget only went up 5.3 percent."

Other increases included a salary hike for the Town Accountant previously promised when she was hired last year; a wage increase for the Fire Chief to bring him up to the level of area towns; the allocation of funding for part-time assistance at the Fire Department during the day; and the purchase of a new cruiser for the Police Department, which was pulled out of last year's budget.

Mr. Gamache explained that with anticipated growth in the town and the projected budget recommendations contained in the warrant, if all items were approved at Town Meeting and the upcoming election, Mattapoisett residents would see an estimated 5.5 percent increase in their tax rate from $15.94 to $16.82. Based on a property assessed at $200,000, a home owner could expect to pay $3,364 in taxes in FY 2000 — an increase of $176 over the current rate.

Voters then considered action on ARTICLE 1, which requested a total of $159,516 in salaries for the town's elected officers. Water Commissioner James Huntoon moved that the salary from Town Clerk Lois K. Ennis be amended from $38,683 to $41,500 and that the salaries for the three Water Commissioners be raised from $400 each to $1,000 each for a total of $3,000.

Although voters generally weren't agreeable to raising the Water Commissioners salaries, there was serious debate over Ms. Ennis' compensation. "Lois is the lowest paid department head in Mattapoisett," said Paul Kelly. "She deserves the raise."

"I'm very pleased that Mr. Huntoon has made this request on my behalf," Ms. Ennis said in her own defense. "I've given 33 years of service to Mattapoisett and I've rarely come to you and asked for an increase. I would appreciate your support for this (amendment)."

In two separate motions, Town Meeting voters turned down the increase for Water/Sewer Commissioners (20 to 150) and approved the increase for Town Clerk Lois Ennis (130 to 30).

Under ARTICLE 2, voters were asked to approve a total of $11.45 million for the town's operating budget during FY 2000. Several voters questioned certain line items as Mr. Blasdale read each aloud; among the queries: are the town's computer systems all compliant for the year 2000 (Y2K), why is there a jump in the Police Department expenses budget, and can the Board of Health continue to function at full capacity with a 40 percent decrease in their budget?

Town Clerk and Computer Advisory Board member Lois Ennis assured residents that they are in the process of upgrading all town computers to be Y2K compliant. Police Chief James F. Moran explained that the only major increase in the Police Department budget was the purchase of a new $22,000 cruiser to replace the 1996 marked car with over 100,000 miles.

And Board of Health Chairman Daniel Lee felt they could not deliver the same level of service with a part-time clerk and they would be recommending an alternative to fund a full-time clerk. With that, Mr. Lee moved to transfer $4,000 from line item 112 — which was originally budgeted to cover the closing of the landfill, but is no longer needed — to increase the clerical position to $16,662 to maintain a full-time position. "Do the residents and businesses of Mattapoisett want to deal with a Board of Health office that is only opened part-time?" Mr. Lee asked. His motion to amend the budget as indicated was approved, 148 to 20.

Mr. Lee also moved to amend line item 143A which covers the salary for the Sanitary Landfill staff by transferring $4,500 from the Sanitary Landfill Enterprise Fund to increase that budget to $15,400. "We're planning to open the landfill full-time during the summer through October," Mr. Lee said. "This will cover those additional hours." The motion to amend was approved, 150 to 10.

Water/Sewer Commissioner James Huntoon's motion to increase the salary for Water/Sewer Superintendent William T. Nicholson, however, wasn't as readily accepted by voters. He suggested a flat 5 percent increase be given to Mr. Nicholson, raising his salary from $47,534 to $51,149.

"It seems the only raises we're giving are coming from enterprise funds," said resident Richard Dupere. "I think the enterprise funds we have should pay for projects, not salaries." Mr. Huntoon's motion to amend Mr. Nicholson's salary was resoundly defeated, 40 to 120.

Noting the presence of a quorum, Mr. Blasdale reconvened the second evening of the Annual Town Meeting at 7:12 pm on Tuesday, May 11 in the auditorium of ORR High School. The second night began with healthy debate on ARTICLES 7 and 8 — both of which addressed the allowance of dogs on town property. Resident Paul Wood, who brought ARTICLE 8 before voters by petition, requested that the previous Town Meeting vote to ban dogs from Shipyard Park, Veterans Park (Ned's Point) and town beaches be rescinded.

"(Dog Officers have issued) 210 notices of complaint and only 20 notices of violation — that's less than six per year," he said. "There seems to be no detectable pattern (and) violations seem to be arbitrary. I share your frustration and disgust with the proliferation of dog waste in town ... (but) as taxpayers we are entitled to take our dogs into public places."

"We met with Mr. Wood approximately three or four weeks ago and assured him that some of the items he brought up would be looked into," said Selectmen Paul Lambalot. "I don't have any personal feelings about this article. He's correct, there are a lot of dog droppings, particularly in the village area. I don't have an answer other than added enforcement, and added enforcement costs money."

"Anyone who goes to a band concert has to notice how much better (it's been) this year," said Town Clerk Lois Ennis. "Even though there's been no enforcement, there's been a definite improvement in that park. In the past, you'd put your blanket down and ... ah, what a mess!"

"I pay taxes in this town and I'm a responsible dog owner," said resident Pat Aleks. "It really angered me when I was told I couldn't take my dog to public places. Not being able to take my dog to Shipyard Park and Ned's Point is not a good thing at all."

In the end, there was a little give and take as a motion to approve ARTICLE 8 to remove all current restrictions on dogs in town parks and beaches failed, 15 to 100. A motion to approve an amended version of ARTICLE 7, however, which would restrict dogs from public places like Shipyard Park but allow them on the walkway at Veterans Park (Ned's Point) was approved, 90

Animal Advice

Jay Gould, DVM

LYME DISEASE

My dog gets lots of ticks. Will he get Lyme disease?
Lyme disease is caused by a bacteria and is transmitted by ticks. Unfortunately, Lyme disease is common in this area.

What signs will my dog show?
The most common sign associated with Lyme disease is lameness, often associated with fever. Many dogs show signs, while others are intermittently lame.

Is Lyme disease preventable or treatable?
Yes to both. Vaccines are available for dogs that are fairly effective in preventing Lyme disease. If your dog gets Lyme disease, it can usually be cured by treatment with antibiotics.

"I have a serious problem with trying to restrict dogs from Ned's Point," said Selectman Ray Andrews. "I can see keeping them off the green or the lawn ... but restricting dog owners from walking their dogs at Ned's Point is just not fair."

By Ilana L. Mackin

A regular meeting of the Marion Board of Selectmen was called to order on May 12 at 7:00 pm by Chairman Loretta B. Schaefer. Also present were Selectman Albert E. Winters, Selectman Jonathan "Jody" Dickerson, Town Administrator Ray Pickles, and Secretary Helene Craver.

The board signed and approved warrant #46 and the minutes from the May 4, 1999 meeting, and then voted to reappoint EMT's whose annual appointments have expired. Chairman Schaefer also moved to approve the request for special events to be held at the Music Hall for an anniversary party on May 13, a wedding reception on May 22, and a graduation party on May 30.

At 7:10 pm the board met with Carl Lamoureux, President of the Marion Police Brotherhood, who was accompanied by approximately ten members of the police force and brotherhood. Mr. Lamoureux thanked the board for taking the time to meet with him in order to read a request that was voted on at the Brotherhood's last meeting.

Mr. Lamoureux said that in light of the pending retirement of Chief Brian J. Scott at the end of this year, the Marion Police Brotherhood extended their deepest gratitude toward him for his 21 years of dedicated service as the longest-serving chief for the town. "As pointed out in a recent Town Meeting, Chief Scott will be missed by the community and the members of the department of which he has headed," said Mr. Lamoureux.

On April 29, the Marion Police Brotherhood held a business meeting to discuss their opinions on the selection process for a new police chief and they voted to recommend to the Board of Selectmen that the next chief be selected from the "current group of police officers now employed by the Town of Marion."

"Our feeling in the Police Brotherhood is that because of the size of the department, the current group of police officers employed, and the feeling to carry on what Chief Scott has begun, not appointing from within would be counterproductive to what Chief Scott has accomplished," Marion Lamoureux read from a prepared statement. "Delegation of authority and responsibilities have been his rule and it has been one that has been accepted and carried out by all members of the department." Mr. Lamoureux asked the board on behalf of the Marion Police Brotherhood if they would consider this request and "support" their recommendation.

Chairman Schaefer thanked the Brotherhood members for coming in and stated that the board has not yet considered how they will conduct the new selection process but will certainly take their letter of recommendation under advisement.

At 7:20 the board met with Susan J. Schwager, Director of the Marion Council on Aging, in regards to an upcoming fall community internship program with nursing students from UMass Dartmouth in conjunction with the Wareham Council on Aging. Ms. Schwager reported to the board that "the goal of this pogrom is to allow the student nurses to fulfill their program requirements by making home visits to our most frail elders. This program is supported by the Executive Office of Elder Affairs and is being considered a pilot program for the state."

With consideration of the impacting cuts in health care services, Visiting Nurse Associations do not have the funding available any longer to perform very basic but important assessment visits and the students nurses in their place, under supervision of the program directors, will provide a valuable service to the communities in which they serve. The services will be provided with a "Memorandum of Understanding" that will be agreed to between the COA and various town agencies such as the Board of Health, Police and Fire Departments, Visiting Nursing Associations, Sippican Long Term Care and local churches.

The memorandum specifies that the services provided by the student nurses will not include invasive physical treatment, but will be limited only to vital sign monitoring, lung sounds, blood pressure and doctors plan of medication instruction review. The nurses will be responsible for completing a four-page care plan form, documenting the individual's current care under their primary physician and medical condition documentation, in an effort to make recommendations if necessary, for individuals who require more in depth home care or nursing visits.

"This is certainly a wonderful program and a wonderful opportunity," Chairman Schaefer said.

"It's a definite win-win situation for the elderly and the students," agreed Selectman Dickerson.

Ms. Schwager hopes that Marion will be assigned upwards of eight student nurses, but will be happy with just one. The number of nurses assigned will depend on the basis of need in conjunction with the amount of referrals received for the consultation visits.

At 7:30 pm the board met with Elizabeth Beardsley of the Camp, Dresser & McKee Engineering Firm (CDM) hired by the Town of Marion to conduct a review of the wastewater treatment facility for expansion recommendations. CDM has determined in their findings that all the existing sand beds are no longer functioning and the installation of a filtration system is recommended before any updating or expansion of the plant can begin. CDM, in conjunction with the Waste Management Committee, also recommends that the town work on a Master Contract Agreement that will allow the individual approval of different tasks on a case by case basis.

"Looking back two years ago at where we wanted to be now and where we actually are shows that we're in two different directions," Chairman Schaefer said. "We now realize that before we can improve on the expansion we need for the plant, we need to update the current facility and it has been a very long and frustrating process."

In other matters, the board discussed:

• The issue of raising the parking ticket fees, which turns out to be a legislative manifest that the Board of Selectmen have no say in. Chairman Schaefer will continue to follow up on this matter with the state, but a change will not be enforceable this year. The Selectmen agreed that the current $15 parking ticket fine is not high enough to serve as a useful deterrent to parking offenders during the busy summer season in the downtown and wharf areas.

• Renovations to the Police Department, which Mr. Pickles added are basically complete with the exception of the booking room and the public area. He also reported that the Town Hall bathroom renovations are well underway and the next project is to provide a new handicapped-accessible facility in the women's bathroom.

• Extending the due date for moorings from May 15 to May 17 by 4:30 pm under a recommendation from Mr. Pickles, which was unanimously approved by the board.

At 7:55 pm Mr. Pickles requested they go into Executive Session and the board would thereafter adjourn for the evening.

needs your help in soliciting these "unsung heroes."

The requirements are simple. Nominees must be legal residents of Mattapoisett, Marion, Rochester, Acushnet, or Fairhaven (at least five years), and must have contributed in some way to the overall benefit of the community — either directly to town residents, or indirectly through efforts in promoting town activities, or working to keep the wheels of local government well-oiled. The only restriction is that these persons cannot benefit from their efforts in any way — either financially or politically (hence, sitting elected officials are not eligible).

In doing this, we hope to applaud those who are rarely recognized for their countless hours of service and

ORR Survival Experience

Once again, many of the Old Rochester Regional Junior High School seventh graders are preparing for the annual Survival experience which is the culmination of their seventh grade Health-Science Curriculum. This year the trip will begin on Sunday, June 13 and continue through Saturday, June 19.

This will be the 27th annual happening of this well-known experience. It is estimated that over those 26 previous years and including those who plan to participate this year, there will have been approximately 2,600 "survivors" who have completed the week-long outdoor experience. Many have returned through their high school and college years as chaperones. It has truly become a community-supported program among the tri-town area.

In continuing that support, as you begin your spring cleaning and come upon an unused backpack or tent (in good condition) or any other unwanted camping gear, the Survival Advisory Board would greatly appreciate donations of any kind. These donations help to ensure that all of the participating young people have the means to do so. Additional support for the program is being provided through a student Car Wash and Bake North Rochester Church located on North Avenue. A free offering will be taken.

Historical Society members recently attended a most informative meeting with the Rochester Historic District Study Committee. An excellent presentation was made by Chairman Susan Adams. It is hoped than a Historic District will preserve the integrity of the designated area and provide guidelines for future development within the district.

The Society has recently made available five color postcards of Rochester scenes. These were selected from entries in a previously-held photo contest. The cards are available at the Plumb Library and Lloyd's Market. Work is continuing on the latest Rochester Historical Society Cookbook, featuring recipes requested at our Thankful Suppers.

The Historical Society welcomes new members and hopes that many people will avail themselves of this excellent program and to meet their members. Refreshments will be served.

The Marion Art Center presented two $500 awards at the opening reception of the UMass Dartmouth Art Majors Show and the Butterfield Scholarship Show for high school students last week. Butterfield grants are offered each spring to area (Bourne to Dartmouth) high school seniors in the visual and performing arts. This year's winners were Owen Hartnet of Bishop Stang High School and Justin Campeau of New Bedford High School. Judges were Elaine Cronin, Ben Dunham, and Michael Taylor. Installation of the UMass show was by painting instructor Brian MacFarlane. Coordination of the event was by Patricia White, Chairman of the Exhibition Committee at the Marion Art Center.

tunes are unique and original. From a haunting rendition of "Shenandoah" to the boogie-woogie interpretation of "Comin' Around the Mountain," there is something nostalgic, eclectic, and very American holding all the pieces together.

The second part of the program is titled "Proverbs" and incorporates blues, jazz, and contemporary harmonies to illustrate native American sayings and wisdom from the Hopi, Sioux, Lakota, and other tribes. Some numbers will include other instruments. Special guests are Jim Robataille on guitar, Bob Sanderson on flute, and John Farrell on percussion. Light Lunch Cabaret

On Saturday, May 22, the Young People's Musical Theater group will present a "Light Lunch Cabaret" at 12:00 noon. The event is sort of like a dinner-theater for kids. There will be lunch food, and the entertainment will be excerpts from the award-winning show "Free to Be You and Me" by Marlow Thomas. The show will feature Nathan Bean, Jordyn Cormier, Samantha Paradis, Meredith Race, and Kelsey Woodard. Director Bonnie Breault will accompany the singers on piano. Reservations are recommended. Tickets are $1 for kids and $3 for adults. Please call 748-1266 for reservations or information.

One-Woman Show

A one-woman show is now on display at the Marion Art Center featuring the work of Barbara Heilmann Levine. Ms. Levine's work includes paintings, pastels, and tapestries. The show reveals a breakthrough in the combined efforts of tapestry and painting as related art forms. Her "brush and palette" approach to the construction of her woven work introduces a new technique to the art. The designs are unusual and bold. Much of the work is inspired by nature. There is a progression from detailed studies of individual flowers to an abstract world of personal fantasy paintings.

Barbara Heilmann Levine was born and educated in New York City. After completing studies at Parsons School of Design and The School of Visual Arts, she traveled and painted throughout Europe. Exhibitions of her work in galleries and museums have received several first prizes and critical acclaim. Commissioned works are on permanent display in Boston, Springfield and Amherst. She also designs tapestries, paintings, stained glass windows, and wrought iron chandeliers for private homes. She has taught painting, weaving, and design

NO MONEY DOWN?

If you're thinking about becoming a real estate investor, don't expect to buy a good rental property with the much publicized "no money down" techniques. These are high-risk strategies that usually create large negative cash flows. That means the expenses exceed the income. The owner has to reach deep into his own pocket each month and ante up the difference. Remember, the return on "nothing" is just that -- nothing.

In order to structure a transaction that is economically sound, you need to make a realistic analysis of your projected income and expenses. You want to be certain your projected income will pay your mortgage, taxes, and operating expenses, and give you a reasonable return on the capital you invested.

Our agency can help you make an analysis like this and also provide you with rental rates for comparable properties as well as current mortgage information.

Fairhaven Father's Day Race

The 25th annual running of the Father's Day Road Race will bring close to 700 runners to the scenic streets of Fairhaven on Sunday, June 20. The officially TAC-sanctioned/certified 6.2-mile race begins at 9:00 am at the Elizabeth I. Hastings Middle School on School Street. During the race, runners will travel to North Fairhaven, through the town center and to the Fort Phoenix area before returning to the Middle School.

A total of $1,500 will be awarded. Awards will also be given to the top three finishers in fourteen age divisions with special awards presented to the first three fathers, the first three father/son teams, and the first three father/daughter teams. T-shirts and tavern mugs will be given to the first 600 entrants in the race.

There is a $100 cash bonus for new course records. The records to beat are Jose Rocha's 29:36 time, set in 1986, and Maria Louise Servin's record-setting 1996 time of 33:18.

Entry forms are available from Days Health and Sports, 86 Huttleston Avenue, Fairhaven, MA 02719 (508-997-9460). Runners must register with a $10 non-refundable entry fee before 4:00 pm on Saturday, June 19. There are absolutely no post entries accepted.

The race is sponsored each year by Fairhaven merchants, with the proceeds going to local community projects. Corporate sponsors of the race include Hampton Inn, Shaw's Supermarkets, The Village Peddler, New Balance, Mike's Restaurant, Roland's Tire, Antil's, Mitsubishi Motors, and the SouthCoast Hospitals Group.

Regional Growth Forum

How will area towns manage growth? Larger lots? Cluster zoning? Open space? Growth is a regional problem — how can towns protect their rural character?

These issues will all be addressed during a Growth Forum to be held on Thursday, May 20 at 7:00 pm at Old Hammondtown School in Mattapoisett. Robert Bowyer, Planning Director for Lexington, will talk on how the Town of Lexington is dealing with the issue of residential growth in order to preserve the character of their town as well as preserve valued green areas. Mr. Bowyer will show how to assess the impact of different types of housing on the tax base and how new clustering concepts can save sensitive areas and lower tax burdens.

This forum is open to all area citizens interested in managing growth, town officials, builders, developers, and all who are concerned by increased real estate taxes. The event is sponsored by the Mattapoisett Master Plan

Ask The Chiropractor

BAHAMA HOUSE CHIROPRACTIC

IS KNEE BURSITIS POSSIBLE?

Q For a week or so my knee has been very painful, especially when I move it. The pain feels like the bursitis in my shoulder I suffered with several years ago. Is it possible to have bursitis in a knee?

A Absolutely. A bursa is a small flat sac containing a thin layer of slippery fluid and can be found where body parts move over one another, especially around tendons and joints. The knee contains a number of bursae.

Injured bursae swell up, become inflamed and are usually pretty painful in a condition called bursitis. Though most bursitis cases occur in the shoulder, some 150 of the body's bursae including those around the shoulder, elbow, hip, ankle, foot, and knee are subject to bursitis caused by traumatic injury or overuse injury.

Since you didn't mention the circumstances surrounding the onset of pain, any guesswork about the condition would be inappropriate. You need to find out exactly what your knee problem is.

CHIROPRACTIC FOR BURSITIS

Therefore, a chiropractic examination immediately is in order. If it is bursitis, be aware that bursitis seldom gets better without proper treatment. Chiropractic doctors routinely treat bursitis conditions.

Department is in desperate need of a new grand piano. Presently, the school ensembles are utilizing a Soemer, purchased some 40 years ago when the school was built. Over the years the piano has slowly lost its magical sound. It is now in need of much more than just a quick tune-up. It is imperative that the piano be replaced, not just repaired.

Friends of Old Rochester Music (FORM), an organization consisting of parents and faculty both at the junior and senior high schools is currently undertaking a large campaign. Their goal is to purchase a new Kawai Grand Piano by June, 1999. The total cost will be $21,000. The school has budgeted $8,000 and FORM purchased the three legs of the piano at $500 each. They anticipate raising $11,500 through generous donations and fund-raisers by student musicians.

The annual April Junior and Senior Jazz Night brought in $700 towards the goal. Other fund-raisers are being planned. So far, they are three-quarters to their goal, or $5,000 short. The "Buy A Key" plywood piano, made by the ORR music students and anchored to ORR's front and all Sippican Historical Society programs are open to the public and free-of-charge.

The "Sippican Historical Society" Award is presented annually to one or more persons for dedicated service and commitment to the preservation and enhancement of the Town of Marion.

The talk and slide show will be presented by Suzanne G. Cherau of Public Archaeology Laboratory, Inc. Ms. Cherau is an author of the recently-completed Marion community-wide reconnaissance archaeological survey.

Highlights of Ms. Cherau's presentation include the following: the identification of 11 new Native American site locations in the Town of Marion; identification of 19 historic archaeological sites; and the survival potential for historic sites dating from the first settlement at Little Neck in the late-seventeenth century through the summer resort developments of the late-nineteenth and early-twentieth centuries.

Ms. Cherau will also discuss recommendations for the protection of identified archaeological resources and sensitive areas. The archaeology survey was funded by the Massachusetts Historic Commission and the Sippican Historical Society through a matching survey and planning grant administered by the Massachusetts Historical Commission.

four separate classes of work: watercolor; oil and acrylic; mixed category (pastels, photography, theorem, pen and ink, computer art, mixed media); and crafts. Artists may bring up to four pieces and all will be hung, space permitting. A very few small paintings are acceptable. The hanging of any work will be at the discretion of the Acushnet Art Show Committee. All work to be hung must be framed properly with wire and ready to hang (no sawtooth hangers).

These awards will be decided by a judge. One Popular Vote Award of $25 and ribbon will be given in the combined media categories (first three) and one Popular Vote $25 award and ribbon will be given in the crafts category. The committee is requesting that all winners of awards exhibit their prize winners and ribbons at the opening of the Acushnet Council on Aging Senior Center sometime in June or July (date to be announced).

If you know of an artists who is new in town or is a town resident new to arts and crafts, please call Ed Macomber at 995-8858 and give their name, address and telephone number so they can receive a formal letter of introduction.

Hetty Green

Hetty Green: The Richest Woman in the World, will be presented at the May meeting of the Millicent Library's Book Discussion Group on May 20 at 10:00 am in the library auditorium, 45 Center Street. Edie Nichols of New Bedford, performing as Hetty, brings to life the financial wizard/miser. The public is welcome to attend this FREE, fun and educational program.

Online Database

The Millicent Library announces the arrival of a new online database available through the library's internet connection. "SIRS Researcher on the Web" provides instant access to thousands of full-text articles and graphics on social, scientific, health, historic, economic, business, political, and global issues. The database was developed to meet the day-to-day research needs of everyone — from young people to adults. Teens and adults may access the "SIRS" database by signing up to use the library's internet computer.

For library patrons with home computers and a valid library card from their public library, it is also possible to access a new database from home called "SEARCHBANK." All you have to do is go to the following address: http://www.searchbank.com/searchbank/mlin_s_remote, and type in your library barcode. "SEARCHBANK" consists of four mostly full-text databases covering general reference, academic subjects, health and business. SEARCHBANK is available on the library's internet computer as well as at home.

This Week's Horoscope

by Linda Black

Weekly Tip: The sun is in Taurus, good for making solid decisions and falling madly in love.

Aries (March 21-April 19). Be careful or your fears could get the best of you. Just acknowledge them and they may turn into your allies instead. You're full of energy, but you need to be practical, too.

Taurus (April 20-May 20). Inspiration is apt to strike, through a friend. Listen carefully. You're pressed to take action. Make sure it's in your own best interest.

Gemini (May 21-June 21). Listen carefully to your mentor or you'll miss the most important part of the lesson. Friendship could lead to a lucky break. Finish old projects quickly.

Cancer (June 22-July 22). Love's blossoming, almost. You'll do best in a familiar environment. Put that on hold, as you jump for a career opportunity.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22). A carefully calculated financial risk could work out well. Sports and travel are better, too. Don't let your attention waver.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). Listen to your partner and you'll find your way out of a mess. Stay calm and help another person get through an upset.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). You're most creative, but it'll be hard to stick to a schedule. You'll feel more like a follower than a leader, but don't get talked into doing something stupid or expensive.

Scorpio (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). Love blossoms, but be gentle. It's fragile. There's an overabundance of work. Let your partner make big decisions for you.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). Rearrange your work schedule so it supports something going on at home. Your workload is intense and decisions you make will last.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). Learn from a close loved one. She sees something you're missing. There's more than enough at home, but don't waste it.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Don't ask for money. Plan how to make more through creativity instead.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20). Use what you've learned in a new creative endeavor. Money is coming in.

If You're Having a Birthday This Week: Your network of friends provides inspiration this year.

Bulldogs Prepare for Success

The New Bedford Area Chamber of Commerce, Bristol Community College (Connecting Activities), and Old Rochester Regional High School will be hosting a Parent and Community Education Workshop on May 20 from 7:30 to 9:00 pm at ORR High School's Auditorium. The workshop is titled "Bulldogs ... Preparing for Success" and is intended to raise awareness, educate, and encourage involvement in the School to Career Program.

School to Career is a national program designed to teach students important workplace skills by giving them on-the-job experience. By broadening the definition of a classroom to include school, work, and community-based programs, students are able to make more informed career choices, get a head start on gaining necessary skills, learn about cutting-edge technology, and make great contacts with future employers. School to Career benefits all students, from those going directly to work after graduation to students that are going to four-year universities and graduate schools.

Employers who participate in School to Career programs by hosting student interns, job shadows, provide employee mentors, or act as guest teachers in their local schools benefit by educating their future labor force about industry standards. They acquire potential future employees, and have interns that can do current tasks and projects. Studies show that employers who are actively involved in their local schools have reduced their turnover rate of young (18 to 25) employees by 50 percent.

The keynote speakers at "Bulldogs ... Preparing for Success" will be Dr. Peter Cressy, Chancellor for UMass Dartmouth, and Mr. Joel Burns, Human Resources Director for The Standard-Times. There will also be an open discussion with a panel of business leaders, students and parents who are participating in School to Career, an introduction by ORR School Superintendent Betty Quinn and Principal James Egan, and student project displays, refreshments from local restaurants, and a raffle. The workshop is open to the public and all students are welcome.

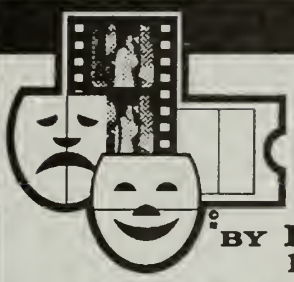
Movie Review



Mummy Dearest

BY ROB GONSALVES
local@wanderer.com

■ The Mummy*. Starring Brendan Fraser and Rachel Weisz. Directed by Stephen Sommers. Running time: 124 minutes. Rated PG-13. At Cinema 12 in the North Dartmouth Mall.

With most movies, you know within the first five minutes whether you're in for a good time or a dreary evening. The Mummy begins with an ancient-Egypt sequence that evokes The Ten Commandments, only with female attire that pushes the PG-13 envelope, so I knew we were on cheerful ground. Right off the bat, Jerry Goldsmith's overcaffeinated score blasts us out of our seats, and we're treated to murder, mutilation, and mummification even before the title comes on. The Mummy has a loose, confident stride; it revels in its own retro-ness, and it's a hell of a lot of fun. Imagine the Spielberg of Raiders of the Lost Ark and the Sam Raimi of Army of Darkness, and you'll be somewhere in the ballpark.

The premise has been pop hokum for 67 years, since the original 1932 version starring Boris Karloff. That version, which Pauline Kael appreciatively called "a bad dream of undying love," combined the then-recent "Curse of Tutankhamen" news stories with elements of Universal's big hits of the previous year, Dracula and Frankenstein. Karloff's mummy Imhotep was smitten with a reincarnation of his lover from 3,000 years hence; the new mummy, played alternately by impressive CG animation and Arnold Vosloo, isn't interested in the leading lady romantically — he wants to sacrifice her to resurrect his dead tootsie. So much for undying love.

This Mummy avoids the beauty-and-the-beast story, a cliché which by now has become older than Imhotep, and goes full steam ahead. Brendan Fraser helps a lot; as Rick O'Connell, a cartoonishly heroic adventurer, he's Indiana Jones for the jaded '90s (though the movie's set in 1926). Rick always finds himself neck-deep in marauding warriors or mummies (or both), which he then has to shoot or slash his way through. Fraser is a likable and intelligent presence, capably matched by British beauty Rachel Weisz as an eager archivist named Evelyn, who, in one of my favorite moments, gets drunk and declares, "I'm proud of who I am! I am...a librarian!"

Essentially, The Mummy is a comedy — an outsize thrill ride, loud and teeming with (generally) well-crafted effects and scares. You have, of course, the obligatory scenes with the heroes poking around in a dark tomb; since these are the only quiet moments in the film, you just know something's about to pounce, and it usually does. You have comic relief in the form of Evelyn's fairly useless brother (John Hannah, of Sliding Doors and Four Weddings and a Funeral) and a cowardly, backstabbing Arab named Beni (the scene-stealing Kevin J. O'Connor). You have a wonderfully odd scene in which a blinded, de-tongued victim of Imhotep appears to be having tea with the mummy and his new friend Beni. You have ravishing eye candy in the form of golden-tinged camerawork by ace cinematographer Adrian Biddle (Thelma & Louise). You have the useful factoid that cats scare off mummies — as good a reason as any to keep Fluffy around.

What you don't have, particularly, is a plot, but Stephen Sommers (Deep Rising) has directed his own screenplay so briskly that it hardly matters. Sommers doesn't toss in any needless complications: The mummy wants the woman, and has to be stopped.

This is the basic plot of any adventure movie, by the way: The bad guys want something valuable, and the good guys have to make sure the bad guys don't get it. In this case, "it" is the heroine. Sexist? Sure, but we're talking 1926. Like Spielberg's Indiana Jones movies, The Mummy is a tongue-in-cheek look at the sexual/racial politics and entertainment of a much less PC era — an homage to what we enjoyed as kids before we were told why we shouldn't enjoy it. But what we enjoyed was the spookiness and the seat-of-the-pants escapes, and the movie has both to spare. On some level, no doubt, it's dumb and obvious, but it's dumb and obvious in just the right ways.
